

Beneficial Bugs!

A Closer Look at the “Good” Insects in your Yard

Like the proverbial squeaky wheel, we often focus attention on pest insects. But the vast majority of insects are beneficial and play important roles as pollinators, recyclers, predators or parasites. Learn about this army of underappreciated beneficial creatures and their roles in yards and gardens.

Patrick (PJ) Liesch,

University of Wisconsin Insect Diagnostic Lab

Wednesday, April 8, 2020 6:00 to 7:30 p.m.

River Falls Public Library, lower level

Reserve a spot in this free class by calling the Pierce County Extension office at 715-273-6781.

Questions:
Diana Alfuth
Horticulture Outreach Specialist
diana.alfuth@wisc.edu; 715-772-3237

